Safely Landed in Jail.

WASHINGTON, Pa., July 30 .- Dempster was safely lodged in jail here at 9 o'clock. The officers had an exciting trip from Canonburg. Two attempts were made to take the negro from them. Shortly after leaving Canonsburg a crowd of about twenty men boarded the car, and with shouts of "Lynch him" and "Kill him," dragged the prisoner and officers from the car. A flerce struggle followed, but the officers succeeded in keeping possession of the ne-gro, and finally drove the mob off at the points of their revolvers. When Washington was reached nearly 300 people had gathered at the court house, but the crowd was eluded by taking the prisoner through the basement to the jail.

LA PORTE, Ind., July 30 .- Mrs. Ferdinand Reese, the oldest woman in Indiana, and, perhaps, in the United States, died here today, aged 112 years. According to documents in her possession she was born in Volgravitz, Poland, in 1794, and after marrying and burying two husbands in Poland came to America in 1870, settling at Buffalo, N. Y., where she married Ferdinand Reese.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Reese removed to La Porte. Her husband died two years ago. In 1817, when Napoleon and an army of invaded Russia she saw the emperor, and on her deathbed recalled vividly the circumstances of his visit to Volgravitz, which he devastated She, among others, escaped by fleeing into the woods. She attributed her long life to her simple method of living. She had two meals of cornbread and black coffee daily.

WORST WRECK ON LINE

TWO CREWS AT WORK CLEARING N. Y. CENTRAL TRACK.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., July 30.-Two vrecking crews are at work this morning clearing the debris of the wreck of the New York Central's Pacific express, which ran into a siding one mile and a half south of Newburgh at 11 o'clock last night, resulting in the death of Robert G. Wells, the engineer, of Albany, and Edward Warren, reman, of New York, and injuries to The Announcement Made in an about a dozen passengers, none of which will prove fatal. There are three tracks at the point where the accident occurred, but they were all torn up or badly twisted for a hundred feet or more.

The wreck was the worst that has occurred on the Hudson river division since the New York tunnel disaster. It seems miraculous that there were no casualties or serious injuries among the passengers, especially with regard to the twenty or more men who were in the combination smoking and baggage car, which, when the locomo-tive turned over after ploughing for forty feet into the great heap of gravel which had fallen down upon the track, shot up and then turning almost at right angles, down with a crash across all three tracks. Joseph Shoen of Poughkeepsle, was found in the forward part of the smoker, felt the floor knocked from under him, and as the car landed, without turning over, he was dropped into the river and swam ashore uninjured.

Thrown From a Window. Dr. E. E. McCambridge of Poughkeepsie was thrown through a window and, with another man, fell upon the tender, which had turned over on its side and lay imbedded in the gravel bank. Neither was hurt to any extent. Other passengers had equally narrow escapes, getting off with slight cuts and bruises. The most seriously injured was E. W. Kelley of Poughkeepsie, who sustained a broken shoulder, but many were stunned.

Fireman Warren was dead when he and the engineer were lifted out of the locomotive, which turned at right angles from the train, darted across the track, and turning on its side, lay on the embankment with the front of the boiler in the river. The en-gineer died three hours later. John Cars-tens, baggageman, was thrown through a window of the smoker and received a very deep cut on his wrist, notwithstanding which he seized a lantern and ran north to which he seized a lantern and ran north to prevent any southbound train from running into the wreck. Dowle himself made the announcement that action toward an appeal has been hundred of his supporters.

Received No Money as Trustee. With regard to the trust estate finding he declared that he had never received money as a trustee, but that it was always simply a matter of contract, evidenced in writing, showing all payments to be debts, payable in one year on call.

If the election ordered by Judge Landis be carried out, he said, the people of Zion will be violating the whole theocratic idea, the very foundation stone of the church. He emphasized that the people had not called nor placed him as head of the church, but that he, as God's chosen man, had admitted each individual member into the church. He held, further, that Judge Landis erred in confining the vote to those living in Zion City. These constitute only one-fourth of the entire church, and thereby three-fourths of the members are prevented from having a voice as to their spiritual leader. spiritual leader.

Mayor William H. Belcher, who surrendered himself at the county jail early today, after having been a fugitive from justice for about a year, told the story of his wanderings. He said that he went to Bartlett, N. H., to recover from rheumatism, and stopped there for a time under an assumed name. "I have been in Boston and the White mountains," he said. "Only once I left the country for a short trip to Canada. I have been in pretty nearly every state in the Union since I went away. I have not seen a face I knew since I left Paterson. I am glad to be here, although I am a prisoner." "What have you done with the money

To this end Attorney General Moody has had some of his best legal talent at work here for several days analyzing the evidence taken before the grand jury at Cleveland a few weeks ago, and preparing a line of procedure that will fortify the testimony already adduced.

The chief task of weaving a net about those alleged to be guilty of lawbreaking will fall to the lot of John J. Sullivan, district attorney for the northern district of Ohio, who was in charge of the investigation into the relations of the Standard Oil Company and railroads at Cleveland, Ohio.

PATENT MODELS Commissioner of Patents Urged to Retain Most of Them.

A committee representing the Patent Bar Association has called upon the assistant commissioner of patents, Edward B. Moore, and advocated the retention of all or most of the collection of patent models which it is proposed to dispose of under an act of Congress. The wide circulation given the report that the patent office had taken steps to get rid of this vast and interesting collection has aroused patent attorneys and inventors all over the country. In view of these circumstances, it is said, the plans of the Secretary of the Interior may be changed in this regard.

The committee appointed by Mr. Moore to go over the models and select those which are an essential part of patent office rec-ords has made its report, and this will be embodied in the report which Mr. Moore will make some time this week to the Secretary. It is understood the committee se-lected for keeping only a ve y small percentage of the number.

It has been stated on good autnority that the Union Building Company, from which Uncle Sam rents the storage space for the models in the Union building, on G street northwest between 6th and 7th streets, has agreed to reduce the rent from $19,500 a year to $10,000, which is the amount of the appropriation by Congress for caring for the models it may be decided to keep. If this is the case the whole collection may

AFTER STANDARD OIL THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE CAMPAIGN

It Has Opened in Earnest for Reform.

WORKING THE PRESIDENT

Both Sides Made Representations to

MR. SMITH'S RECENT VISIT

Significant Editorial in His Paper Today-Mr. Emery's Letter of Acceptance.

The political campaign in Pennsylvania has opened in earnest, the letter of acceptance of Mr. Lewis Emery, the reform candidate for governor, firing the first gun in hostilities that promise to be active. It is war to the knife and the knife to the hilt between Poss Penrose's machine and the best elements of the republican and democratic parties from now on.

It appears that the exposure of the plans of Boss Penrose to further exploit President Roosevelt in behalf of his machine served to throw some cold water on his scheme. He had induced the President to give his game a boost by a timely word in behalf of "republican regularity." It was the boss' last card and he was backing it heavily.

Then the reform republicans got into communication with Oyster Bay and suggested that this was a state campaign; that state issues alone were involved; that the reform republicans were not opposing the regular republican congressional ticket, and it was delicately hinted that presidential interference in behalf of Boss Penrose's outfit was hardly in order. It was officially announced from Oyster Bay the other day that the President would not talk politics in Pennsylvania this fall.

Mr. Charles Emory Smith, formerly a member of President McKinley's cabinet, and for a little while of President Roosevelt's, and now editor of the Philadelphia Press, one of the influential republican newspapers of the keystone state, was a recent visitor to Oyster Bay. Mr. Smith's that state issues alone were involved; that newspapers of the keystone state, was a recent visitor to Oyster Bay. Mr. Smith's paper has not formally come out against the regular state ticket, being somewhat conservative, as the Pittspatch Dispatch, which occupies a similar field in the west-ern part of the state, but the attitude of the Press has been very friendly to the reform movement.

Politicians say that the Press and the Dispatch would have been in a difficult position if Roosevelt should come out openly for the boss' ticket. The Press was heart and soul for the reform movement in Philadelphia last fall, and this state agitation is declared to be but expansion of that fight.

A Significant Editorial. The Press in its issue today has a significant editorial on the Emery letter of acceptance. It says in part:

"Mr. Emery's letter of acceptance is the incisive and impressive deliverance of a reformer of strong fiber, of clean purpose and of robust will. He has something to say, and he says it with directness, pungency and power. No hesitation here; no evasion; no irresolution: no timidity. Mr. Emery knows what he means and means what he says. He is out for battle against 'political corruption and corporate greed,' and he doesn't care who knows it. "His first point is that no national poli-tics is involved in the state contest. He holds that all patriotic citizens can combine, without regard to their national dif-ferences, for the redemption of the state. He does not renounce his republicanism in becoming a candidate, and no citizen abjures his party in supporting him. Neither the Lincoln republican nor the democrat is any less the one or the other because they unite in this movement. National issues for national representatives and state issues for state officers.

"In the state the primary issue, as Mr. Emery conceives it, is to free the common-wealth from corporate domination and political misrule. The two are inseparably associated.

"His supporters will find his letter an inspiriting trumpet call. It rings with earnestness, courage and vigor. There is no note of equivocation or doubt. In the suggestion of practical measures of reform it is specific in definition and explicit in pledge. A campaign on the platform of this letter, led by a fighter as fearless as Mr. Emery, will evoke a great response from the state."
The letter of acceptance of Mr. Emery the candidate of the Lincoln republican party, and who has been indorsed by the clousness of the Penrose appeal for "party regularity," and that is all the boss has in stock at this time.
